

ID Political Science is
1	1. Understanding politics and political parties.
1	2. Learning about the different issues the government is currently addressing.
1	3. Learning about how our government was formed (the foundation of our government).
1	4. A guide to the political parties views on specific issues.
2	1. The study of the inter-workings of the government.
2	2. This involves the past and the future.
2	3. It is how a government is run through rules and regulations.
2	4. For our country, it seems like every angle of government action was considered.
3	1. The study of how our government works
3	2. Why we have a government
3	3. The study of other's government
3	4. The different levels of our government
4	1. (I'm guessing) The study of politics and the many issues that face the world today.
4	2. Political Science studies how people and the government can work together.
4	3. It is the science of human relationship to environment and how that may effect the country, and eventually world.
4	4. Political Science helps bring human concerns to the attention of the government.
5	1. Political science is the study of politics.
5	2. Political science helps us to understand different types of governments.
5	3. Political science tells us how the government works with the people.
5	4. Political science shows us how important it is for people to be involved in the government; for example, 5 participating in the voting process.
6	1. Political science is the study of political systems.
6	2. Political science is the study of how government interacts with the people.
6	3. Political science is the study of how governments are constructed.
6	4. Political science is about how people's lives are shaped by government policy.
7	1. The study of the government and politics
7	2. A subject that looks at the election of officials, their terms, roles, and duties.

7	3. Something that deals with how the country operates.
7	4. A combination of politics, bureaucracy, and constituents.
8	1. a study about government
8	2. A study about why people act the way they do- voting, terrorism, etc.
8	3. everything you need to know about politics
8	4. the effects of laws and restrictions
9	1) laws
9	2) wars/fights
9	3) wins/ victories
9	4. evidence
10	1. Political Science is how the government is run and the people who run it.
10	2. Political Science is the study of government.
10	3. Political Science is politics and how that affects people.
10	4. Political Science is policies, management and analyzing of the government.
11	1. the way a government is set up
11	2. the affects government has on our lives
11	3. the way citizens and government interact
11	4. the history and future of government and politics
12	1. Political science is the study of government.
12	2. Political science is the study of other countries governments and how the function.
12	3. Political science is the study of political units and how they benefit each other.
12	4. Political science is the study of how people and the world is effected by politics.
13	1. It is about government.
13	2. how we learn the ramifications for picking presidents, the past, and possible the future.
13	3. about how the government works in our country and others.
13	4. brings cultures together when it comes to politics.
14	1. the study of how politics work.
14	2. the study of how past politics effects current politics.
14	3. an ongoing science.

14	4. the study of different governments
15	1. studying the specifics of politics.
15	2. studying the effects of politics.
15	3. learning the political terms in order to better understand current events and status.
15	4. looking at the effects of politics on a country.
16	1. The study of government.
16	2. The history of government.
16	3. The study of politics.
16	4. The study of people's inaction with the government
17	1. The study of politics
17	2. The study of laws
17	3. The study of how laws and politics affect humans
17	4. The study of how different governments work
18	1. How the government works.
18	2. How we make laws.
18	3. Legislation.
18	(left blank)
19	1. The study of government.
19	2. The study of the judicial system.
19	3. The study of the electoral system.
19	4. The stud of the separate parties, right wing vs. left.
20	1. Political Science is the study of the processes, principles, and structure of government and politics.
20	2. Political Science is about our politics.
20	3. Political Science is a complex issue that our society should be aware of.
20	4. Political Science is a changing and evolving topic.
21	1. Political Science is government
21	2. Political Science is laws
21	3. Political Science is the history of law
21	4. Political Science is the history of courts and how they regulate and work, and why.

22	1. The study of different cultures.
22	2. The study of diversity.
22	3. In this course you can study politics and our society.
22	(left blank)
23	Political science explains the thought process of the Bush Administration.
23	Political science is the study of current events having to do with politics.
23	Political science is American history.
23	Political science is the government.
24	the study of the political system
24	the study of how the political system has changed and how it affects the current political system.
24	the study of different types of governments and how they work.
24	the study of where types of government began and developed.
25	1. Studying governments.
25	2. Studying foreign affairs and foreign politics.
25	3. Studying past and current events that have led us to where we are today.
25	4. Understanding why governments are formed the way they are.
26	1. the study of current politics.
26	2. the study of past politics.
26	3. a way of explaining how our government works.
26	4. the study of political interactions between countries.
27	1. public affairs
27	2. government science
27	3. how both international and national actors interact with one another
27	4. politics
28	1. the study of our nation's government system.
28	2. looking at different government systems as compared to others.
28	3. understanding politics in general.
28	4. understanding why certain government systems are ineffective while others are effective.
29	1. Political Science is the study of the government.

29	2. Political Science is knowing who does what and why they perform that certain task.
29	3. Political Science is finding a solution for a major problem.
29	4. Political Science is wanting to know more about how things work and why they work.
30	1. the study of how politics plays into a culture.
30	2. the study of political interactions within a country.
30	3. the study of political interactions between various countries/groups.
30	4. the attempted understanding of how political systems are structured and how they work to reflect the values of a society.
31	1. The study of government.
31	2. The study of laws.
31	3. The study of political institutions.
31	4. A way of examining how politics are structured and how they affect our society.