

SOSC 300 Evaluation Matrices

All Roles for Exercise 3 are graded with a combination of attendance and these rubrics.

Criteria for Water Judges	4 Advanced	3 Proficient	2 Essential	1 Inadequate
Speech to class	Oral presentation corresponds to visual presentation, insightful knowledge of subject matter.	Ideas flowed logically, comprehensive knowledge of subject matter.	Organized, conveyed major ideas. Understands subject matter.	Disorganized, hard to follow. Did not demonstrate knowledge of subject matter.
Evidence of research	Evidence justifies interpretation and conclusions.	Evidence supports Interpretation appropriately.	Evidence supports interpretation appropriately.	Data is inappropriate.
Overall Appearance	Graphs, maps and charts are of near professional quality and enhance clarity.	Graphs, maps and charts add to clarity.	Data appropriate, but interpretation is weak.	Work has poor appearance.
Organization	Presentation style suitable for broad audiences; visuals enhance clarity.	Ideal flow logically.	Organized, conveys most ideas.	Disorganized and hard to follow.
Coordination with other judges	Strong teamwork, smooth, able to handle all challenges.	Coordinated, good teamwork, efficient decision-making.	Organized, reflects planning effort.	Disorganized, uneven, inefficient.
Comments

SOSC 300 Evaluation Matrices

All Roles for Exercise 3 are graded with a combination of attendance and these rubrics.

Criteria for Lobbyists	4 Advanced	3 Proficient	2 Essential	1 Inadequate
Oral Presentation	Oral presentation corresponds to visual presentation, insightful knowledge of subject matter.	Ideas flowed logically, comprehensive knowledge of subject matter.	Organized, conveyed major ideas. Understands subject matter.	Disorganized, hard to follow. Did not demonstrate knowledge of subject matter.
Poster Layout	Evidence justifies interpretation and conclusions.	Evidence supports Interpretation appropriately.	Evidence supports interpretation appropriately.	Data is inappropriate.
Overall Appearance	Graphs, maps and charts are of near professional quality and enhance clarity.	Graphs, maps and charts add to clarity.	Data appropriate, but interpretation is weak.	Work has poor appearance.
Context	Presentation style suitable for broad audiences; visuals enhance clarity.	Ideal flow logically.	Organized, conveys most ideas.	Disorganized and hard to follow.
General Mechanics	No English or writing errors.	Minimal English and/or writing errors.	Organized, suitable grammar.	Disorganized, poor grammar. Hard to follow.
Comments

SOSC 300 Evaluation Matrices

All Roles for Exercise 3 are graded with a combination of attendance and these rubrics.

Criteria for News Analysts	4 Advanced	3 Proficient	2 Essential	1 Inadequate
Oral Reports to Class	Oral presentation corresponds to visual presentation, insightful knowledge of subject matter.	Ideas flowed logically, comprehensive knowledge of subject matter.	Organized, conveyed major ideas. Understands subject matter.	Disorganized, hard to follow. Did not demonstrate knowledge of subject matter.
Newsletters and other publications	Extra effort is evident, well written, well-designed.	Strong mix of news, creative, complete.	Matches expertise of the role, good mix of coverage.	Data is inappropriate, coverage is narrow.
Overall Appearance	Graphs, maps and charts are of near professional quality and enhance clarity.	Graphs, maps and charts add to clarity.	Data appropriate, but interpretation is weak.	Work has poor appearance.
Conference Masters of Ceremony	Impressive organization and flow, handled all tasks.	Well planned, judges and others had lead time.	Organized, major events included.	Disorganized, chaotic, frustrating.
Coordination with other analysts	Strong teamwork, smooth, able to handle all challenges.	Coordinated, good teamwork, efficient decision-making.	Organized, reflects planning effort.	Disorganized, uneven, inefficient.
Comments				